“ My sincerest sympathies to Glenn Kim Trent and their families. I have so many wonderful memories of spending time at Hutchison's Beach when I was young . It is so sad to think that that generation is now gone. When I think about those memories I can see Edmond always with a smile on his face. He was such a good friend to my dad, and he was one of the drivers that would take veterans to the VA in Togus. When my dad needed to go down he couldn't wait because he knew he would have that ride to Togus to visit with Edmond and they could reminisce about the good all days. Now they are together once again.

“ My whole life Edmond and Romaine lived in the house across the street. My mom tied me to the porch one day because I was over there so much! Romaine would let me bake with her and Edmond would sneak cookies and make a big deal about how he needed another because he had to make sure they all tasted the same. Glen, Kim, and Trent words are hard to find to describe the incredible gift your parents were. They were an intricate part of the village the raised us and provided us all a safe place to grow up in.
